Christopher Rooney
Author and Journalist

Did someone in your family serve in the Women's Land Army?

Would you like to chronicle and celebrate that in a Life Story Book?

I am a professional writer. I'd like to hear from anyone who is interested in having a book written about a relative's time in the WLA. The Life Story Books I write are not published commercially. They are unique and memorable gifts, becoming cherished family heirlooms.

If you would like more information, my contacts details are as follows:
