Digging for VICTORY

By Danielle Pearson

Directed by Heidi Bird

Designed by Isobel Nicolson

Lighting designed by Lawrence T. Doyle

When sisters Joyce, Beryl and Vera Linnet arrive at Nott's Farm in Kent to join the Women's Land Army, they hope to find some respite from the danger and chaos of wartime London. But when their fellow Land Girl Mabel goes missing, leaving behind only a series of coded clues, it's clear that all is not as it seems in the sleepy village of Witherington. Led by Joyce, with her insatiable appetite for mystery novels, the sisters vow to dig for the truth. But can they solve the code in time? And as they investigate the inhabitants of Nott's Farm, what secrets of their own will be brought to light?
